

NOVEMBER 1ST TO 30TH IS

Indigenous Education Month

Indigenous Education Month is a time to celebrate Indigenous cultures, languages, perspectives, histories, and contemporary realities. This month and every month we work to centre Indigenous voices across curricula and to ensure all students feel supported, respected, valued, and reflected in our learning communities.

Join our Indigenous Education Team this month for a series of webinars:

November 4th: The History of Indigenous Education in Canada

November 11th: Rich, Relevant, Real and Responsive Learning: Approaching Learning from an Indigenous Student Perspective

November 18th: Vetting Indigenous Education Resources

November 30th: Beyond Orange Shirt Day

Registration information will be sent out via email to all LDSB students, staff, teachers, and admin.

How can you get involved?

- 1. Honour Treaty Recognition Week and Indigenous Veterans Day.
- 2. Celebrate Louis Riel Day on Nov. 16th.
- 3. Explore the K-12 Indigenous Education Course in MindsOnline.
- 4. Utilize the Getting to Know Turtle Island Curriculum Document and Kit.
- 5. Explore Indigenous Mentor Texts.
- 6. Read a Book/Watch a Movie/Listen to Music/etc. by Indigenous Peoples.
- 7. Learn the Languages of the Land you are Situated on and Greet Students in Those Languages.
- 8. Get Outside and Learn about the Land!
- 9. Learn more about Indigenous organizations, supports, and programming within LDSB and your local community.

Limestone
DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

For more information, questions, or support please contact Liv Rondeau at rondeaul@limestone.on.ca.